POWER FOR YOUR BUSINESS

As the second largest international professional association, LEA Global opens doors in more than 100 countries where our 189 firms operate with multi-billion-dollar resources.

An association of independently owned, entrepreneurial firms, LEA Global provides clients the benefit of personal global connections, innovative accounting and business experts, and quality specialists in diverse services and industries. Partners in LEA Global firms are leaders in their fields and active on the front lines. They work closely with clients, from start-ups to international conglomerates, from private to public companies as well as nonprofits and individuals.

LEA Global firm members don't need to search Google to find the best expert in an unfamiliar industry or geographic area—they already personally know the right people to assist their clients—fellow LEA Global members.

LEA Global is an alliance of strong, productive and personal relationships that grow through hundreds of individual and associated-sponsored opportunities around the corner and around the world.

EMPOWERED PEOPLE. REDUCED BUREAUCRACY.
AFFORDABLE FEES. EXCEEDED EXPECTATIONS.

SERVICES

LEA Global firms assist in the vast array of challenges its clients face, providing everything from traditional accounting services to innovative business strategies. CONTRIBUTORS TO SUCCESS

LEA Global firms' success hinges on helping clients succeed, whether they require assistance entering a new niche market, a new country or resolving a business challenge. Whatever the need, LEA Global firms stand ready to help.

TRUSTED PARTNERS

Firms can't just sign up to join LEA Global. They must go through rigorous review before being accepted into the alliance. LEA Global firms take their membership seriously—and that's because when they invite another firm to work their clients they must be confident those referrals provide the best possible counsel.

A MIDDLE MARKET COMPANY hesitated to aggressively pursue opportunities in countries where its executives knew no one. Intimidated by the unknown, the company worked with its LEA Global firm to build bridges, gaining local familiarity through LEA Global's connections to accounting and banking contacts as well as attorneys. The new relationships also helped the company cut through all the red tape involved in crossing borders.

A COMPANY WITH SUBSIDIARIES AROUND THE WORLD sought to outsource its tax function, it considered an LEA Global firm and a Big Four firm. The LEA Global firm coordinated the proposal with fellow LEA member firms located where the company's subsidiaries were. After reviewing both proposals, the company determined its complete global outsourcing solution should be provided by the LEA Global firm.

A U.S. MANUFACTURER WITH OPERATIONS IN EUROPE was using a management agency to handle payroll, invoicing, collections and payables there. When the manufacturer mentioned this to its LEA Global firm, it was connected with the LEA Dutch affiliate, which ultimately provided the same services for approximately half the cost.
