BCG COMPANIES

Eric J. Hieber Principal

Eric Hieber is a Principal for BCG Companies. He oversees the case design team and is responsible for managing client relationships in both the wealth transfer/estate planning and nonqualified executive benefit planning markets. In addition, he works directly with our clients and their advisors to design, implement and administer customized plans to meet their specific needs.

Eric began his association with BCG Companies in 1993 after earning a BS in Mathematics from the University of Richmond. He is currently a registered representative of M Financial Holdings and is an active member of the Association for Advanced Life Underwriting.

Eric is married and enjoys spending his free time working on home projects and golfing. He and his wife are actively involved with the Henrico Humane Society.

Jeri L. Turley President / Principal

Jeri Turley is the President and a Principal of BCG Companies. She works closely with clients and their advisors throughout the wealth transfer process for high net worth individuals and families as well as executive benefit and succession planning for public and privately held companies. Jeri also coordinates and supervises the product design, underwriting and servicing efforts of other staff members.

Jeri began her career with BCG Companies in 1995. She holds a BBA in International Business and Economics from James Madison University and is a registered representative of M Holdings Securities.

Jeri is married and the proud mother of three active boys. In addition to time spent in her local community, Jeri enjoys spending time with her children, attending sporting events and reading.
